(6.1 Amended 6/28/01)

6.1.1 ASSIGNMENT OF DIVISION IV CONFLICT CASES

Any case that would ordinarily be assigned to Division IV by local court rule shall be assigned to a different judge by the Circuit Clerk upon the filing of any pleading or entry of appearance by any relative of the Division IV judge. For all probate and juvenile cases in Cape Girardeau County, the case shall be assigned by the Circuit Clerk to one of the circuit judges pursuant to a random selection process ordered by the Presiding Judge. For all other cases in Cape Girardeau County, the case shall be assigned by the Circuit Clerk to the Division III judge.
(Adopted 11.06.02)

6.2 ASSIGNMENT BY LOCAL COURT RULE OR ORDER

The Associate Circuit Judges shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the Circuit Judges as provided by statute and Supreme Court Rule.

6.2.1 DOMESTIC RELATIONS CASES

Any Circuit or Associate Circuit Judge may hear any domestic relations case, i.e. those types of cases designed as such by the Office of State Courts Administrator, in any county within the Circuit without further assignment.

Once a Circuit Judge or Associate Circuit Judge has been assigned to a domestic relations case that judge shall remain the assigned judge for all future matters arising in the case, including all proceedings under Chapter 454. However, if no pre-trial orders have been issued by the assigned judge, at the request of the parties in writing, any other Circuit or Associate Circuit Judge may hear such case without further assignment.

6.2.2 STIPULATION FOR PLEA

If immediately after conducting a preliminary hearing or accepting a waiver of preliminary hearing, the Prosecuting Attorney, Defense Counsel, and the Defendant all sign a stipulation: a) requesting that the Associate Circuit Judge take the felony plea, and b) waiving in writing all objections thereto, then said Associate Circuit Judge may take said felony plea without further assignment. If sometime after the Preliminary Hearing stage the Prosecuting Attorney, Defense Counsel, and the Defendant all sign a stipulation: a) requesting that an Associate Circuit Judge take the felony plea, and b) waiving in writing all objections thereto, then said Associate Circuit Judge may take said felony plea upon assignment by the Presiding Judge.

6.2.3 ASSIGNMENT UPON DISQUALIFICATION OF BOTH CIRCUIT JUDGES

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 51.05(e)(2), if the presiding judge is disqualified from hearing a case, the case shall be transferred to the other circuit judge, who may assign the case to himself or another judge within the circuit. If both circuit judges have been disqualified from hearing a case, an assignment shall be requested from the Supreme Court.

(Rule 6.2 amended 6/28/01)

6.3 SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT

The Presiding Judge may assign judges to hear such cases or classes of cases as the Presiding Judge may designate, and to assign judges to divisions. Such assignment authority shall include the authority to authorize particular Associate Circuit Judges to hear and determine cases or classes of cases in addition to those authorized in Section 478.225 RSMo. By this subsection the Presiding Judge shall not, however, be authorized to make the following assignments: a) Assign a municipal judge to hear any case other than to initially hear a municipal ordinance violation case of another municipality which makes provisions for its own municipal judge; b) Assign a case to a judge contrary to the provisions of Supreme Court Rules.

6.4 ASSIGNMENT TO CIRCUIT JUDGES

Divisions I and II: Cases other than those specified above shall be assigned by the Circuit Clerk to a division presided over by a Circuit Judge using a random selection process ordered by the Presiding Judge, except as follows:

- a. Any request for post-judgment relief, motions, to modify, post-trial motions concerning execution and garnishment, or motions for post-conviction relief shall be assigned to the division of the judge who rendered judgment.
- b. Criminal cases shall be assigned to the division who next holds a law day. All criminal charges against one defendant shall be assigned to the same division.
- c. Adoption and Transfer of Custody Cases.

Notwithstanding any provision of these rules for automatic assignment of cases or automatic transfer of judges, or reassignment of cases or transfer of judges by a circuit judge or associate circuit judge, the Presiding Judge may assign cases and transfer judges within the limitations of the law as the expedient administration of justice requires.

(6.4 Amended effective 2/10/95)

6.5 MUNICIPAL DIVISION ASSIGNMENT

The judge of a municipal division may hear and determine only cases that involve the violation of a municipal ordinance within the municipality for which the judge serves.

In those municipalities which have elected to provide their own municipal court as provided by law, if any municipal judge becomes disqualified to act, other than pursuant to Supreme Court Rules, the case shall automatically be assigned to another qualified municipal judge as selected by that municipality.

6.6 ABSENCE OF CIRCUIT OR ASSOCIATE JUDGE

In the absence of a Circuit Judge of any division, any other Circuit Judge may, during such absence, sit as the judge of that division and perform all the duties of the absent judge.

In the absence of a Circuit or Associate Circuit Judge of any division, any other Associate or Circuit Judge may, during such absence, execute any writs that need to be acted upon prior to the return of the absent judge.

In the absence of the Associate Circuit Judge of any division, any other Associate Circuit Judge or Circuit Judge may, during such absence, sit as the judge of that division and perform all the duties of the absent judge.

6.7 ABSENCE OF PRESIDING JUDGE

In the event the Presiding Judge is, from time to time, absent from the circuit, or is disabled, or disqualified from acting in the capacity of Presiding Judge in any case or matter whatsoever; then, during any such period of absence or disability or disqualification, the other Circuit Judge shall be the Acting Presiding Judge and may exercise the responsibilities prescribed by law for Presiding Judges. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, this rule shall not be interpreted as intending to apply to the type of disqualification referred to in sub-paragraph 1 of Section 478.240 RSMo and in Article 5, Section 24 of the Missouri Constitution.

RULE 7: WITHDRAWAL OF PAPERS FROM CLERKS' OFFICE

7.1 WHEN ALLOWED

No official files of the Circuit Court or any division thereof shall be removed from said office except in the custody of employees of the Circuit Court.

7.2 DUPLICATING POLICY

Requests for copies of Court records should be directed to the clerk in charge of said records. No charge shall be made for copies of documents furnished to any city, county, state agency, or state department.

Administrative copies:	$.10 per page, plus $.20 per minute
Court Records:	$1.00 per page
Certified or Authenticated: (per document):	per statute.

RULE 8: DOCKETING OF CASES

8.1 DOMESTIC RELATIONS CASES

Upon the filing of a Domestic Relations case, the Circuit Clerk or Division Clerk shall schedule the case for a status conference with the Court on a Law Day approximately 90 days from the date of filing. The Clerk shall docket the entry and notify counsel and pro se parties of the docket setting.

8.2 CIRCUIT CIVIL CASES

Upon the filing of a Circuit Civil case, the Circuit Clerk or Division Clerk shall schedule the case for a status conference with the Court on a Law Day approximately 120 days from the date of filing. The Clerk shall docket the entry and notify counsel and pro se parties of the docket setting.

8.3 PUBLICATION OF DOCKETS (No Local Rule)

8.4 NON-ISSUANCE OF SUMMONS OR NON-EST RETURN

Except for good cause shown, a case shall be dismissed without prejudice for failure to prosecute on the first Court date if summons has not been served on a party and no entry of appearance has been filed.

8.5 NO GENERAL CONTINUANCES

Every case schedule on a Law Day or other docket day shall be set for trial or continued to another Law Day or docket day. No general continuances are allowed.

8.6 DISMISSAL DOCKET

The Court may, at its discretion, schedule dismissal dockets for any cases in which insufficient activity has been noted on the docket sheet for six (6) months. Unless good cause is shown why the case should not be dismissed, the Court shall dismiss the case without prejudice for failure to prosecute. No case shall be dismissed by the Court without an appropriate docket entry and prior written notice to counsel of record.

(Rule 8 Amended 3/98)

RULE 9: COURTROOM AND PROCEDURE

9.1 ASSIGNMENT OF COURTROOMS

BOLLINGER COUNTY:

Division I and II: The courtroom in Marble Hill is assigned to Division I and II except for each Wednesday when it is assigned to Division V.

CAPE GIRARDEAU COUNTY:

Division I: The circuit court courtroom in Jackson is assigned to Division I for a one week period, commencing on the first and third Mondays of the month. The circuit court courtroom in Cape Girardeau is assigned to Division I for a one-week period, commencing on the second and fourth Mondays of the month.

Division II: The circuit court courtroom in Cape Girardeau is assigned to Division II for a one week period commencing on the first and third Mondays of the month. The circuit courtroom in Jackson is assigned to Division II for a one-week period commencing on the second and fourth Mondays of the month.

Division III: The non-jury courtroom in Jackson is assigned to Division III.

Division IV: The non-jury courtroom in Cape Girardeau is assigned to Division IV.

Division V: The Division V courtroom in Jackson is assigned to Division V.

PERRY COUNTY:

The second floor courtroom in Perryville is assigned to Division I and II. The Division VI courtroom on the first floor is assigned to Division VI.

Division III and IV, V, and VI: In any month that has a fifth Monday in it, any division may set cases in the circuit court courtroom at Jackson and Cape Girardeau by scheduling the use thereof through the Presiding Judge. Use of the circuit court courtroom at other times shall be subject to the schedule of the circuit judge to whom the courtroom is assigned and arrangements for its use shall be made through that Division.

9.2 PLACE OF HEARING (No local rule)

9.3 USE OF COUNSEL TABLE (No local rule)

9.4 COURTROOM DECORUM AND DRESS (No local rule)

RULE 10: COURT REPORTERS AND COMPENSATION (See Rule 23)

RULE 11: RECORDING OF JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS (No local rule)

RULE 12: MONIES PAID INTO COURT (No local rule)

RULE 13: COMMUNICATIONS WITH COURT

13.1 ORAL COMMUNICATION WITH THE COURT

The Court will not permit interviews, arguments, or communications where all interests which may be affected thereby are not represented except in cases where provision is made by law for ex parte application. Any such attempt will be summarily terminated by the Court.

13.2 WRITTEN COMMUNICATIONS WITH COURT

Copies of all written materials and documents filed in any pending case file and copies of all written communications between one or more parties, counsel, Clerk or Judge, hereinafter referred to as "the Court", shall be provided to opposing counsel in the same method of transmission and delivery used to communicate with the Court.

By way of illustration, if a Motion is faxed to the Court, a copy of this Motion shall be faxed to opposing counsel on the same date and at the same approximate time as the communication made to the Court. If the same method of transmission and delivery of the communication in question is not available, the Court and opposing counsel should be clearly advised by the party submitting the faster communication to the Court of that fact and every reasonable effort shall be made to timely deliver the information to the opposing counsel as soon as practical.

Nothing contained herein shall undermine any Rule of Professional Responsibility regarding ex parte communications with the Court about the facts of a case.

GENERAL RULES

RULE 21: ATTORNEYS

21.1 RESOLUTION OF CONFLICTING TRIAL SETTINGS (No local rule)

21.2 ENTRIES OF APPEARANCE (No local rule)

21.3 CONDUCT OF ATTORNEYS (No local rule)

21.4 WITHDRAWAL OF ATTORNEYS

An attorney requesting to withdraw shall file a written motion requesting leave of court to do so. A copy of the motion and notice shall be served upon all parties, including the client from whose employ the attorney is seeking leave to withdraw, in the manner provided by Supreme Court Rule 43.01. The last known address of the client shall be plainly set out in the motion or the certificate of service thereon.

The attorney must appear in open Court and call up the motion at the time specified in the notice. If the case is a criminal case, it shall be the duty of the client to appear in person. If the client fails to appear, and if the attorney is granted leave to withdraw, the attorney shall immediately notify his former client by letter of the attorney's withdrawal and shall send a copy of the letter to the clerk. Such letter shall advise the former client of any scheduled Court proceedings or pleading deadlines in the case.

21.5 FAILURE OF ATTORNEYS TO ANSWER DOCKET CALL (No local rule)

21.6 APPOINTMENT OF ATTORNEYS (No local rule)

21.7 AGREEMENT OF ATTORNEYS (No local rule)

21.8 ADVICE TO CLIENTS AND WITNESSES OF COURTROOM PROCEDURES (No local rule)

RULE 22: APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN AD LITEM (No local rule)

RULE 23: TRANSCRIPTS

Court Reporters: In any matter where the record was maintained by a court reporter, all orders for transcripts on appeal or of the testimony of any witness shall be made in writing to that reporter. The reporter's acceptance of service of such order shall be filed with the appropriate clerk. All applications for extension of time to file transcripts shall show the date the same was ordered. Preparation of any transcript on appeal by a court reporter shall not begin until the person ordering such transcript makes a cash deposit with the reporter of such amount as the reporter reasonably estimates such transcript will cost. In the event any cash deposit exceeds the cost of the transcript ordered, the excess shall be refunded to the person who ordered the transcript upon its completion. In the event the deposit is insufficient to pay for a transcript, the remaining unpaid portion of the cost shall be due upon the delivery of the transcript to the person who ordered it prepared. Payment will be made to the reporter who prepared it.

Electronically Recorded Proceedings: Preparation of a typewritten transcript of a record preserved by electronic recording device shall not begin until the clerk is paid a sum sufficient to cover the estimated cost of this work. The estimated cost will be based on rates established by the Office of the State Courts Administrator for transcripts.

Any person wishing to listen to or transcribe a record preserved by electronic recording device must request a copy of the tape(s) to be made by the Office of the State Courts Administrator. The Clerk will process such request upon payment of the appropriate fee.

RULE 24: EXHIBITS

The attorney is responsible for all exhibits before, during, and after trial. Exhibits should be marked for identification prior to trial. All exhibits offered during the trial, except depositions, shall remain in the custody of the attorneys offering the same and shall at all reasonable times be subject to examination by opposing counsel.

At the conclusion of all trials, except as otherwise provided by the Court, the Clerk is directed to return to the respective parties all exhibits introduced during the trial. Exhibits are to be retained by the respective parties at least until the time for filing of a "Notice of Appeal" has expired or such appeal is taken.

RULE 25: FACSIMILE FILINGS

Applications for search warrants and affidavits in support thereof, arrest warrants, complaints and indictments in support thereof, and other motions, applications, orders, warrants, pleadings, and the like, may be filed by facsimile transmission provided it is not otherwise prohibited by law and further provided that the filing of said document does not require a filing fee or cost deposit. A pleading or other paper so filed shall have the same effect as the filing of an original document, even though it may be required to be verified or submitted by affidavit. A facsimile signature shall have the same effect as an original signature.

(Rule 25 Amended 8/17/98)

RULE 26: MOTIONS

Motions requiring notice and hearing, matters that require testimony for disposition, matters in default, and other proceedings set specifically by the Court, may be heard and disposed of on Law Days.

Other than Motions for Summary Judgment, a notice of hearing shall be filed within twenty (20) days of the filing of any motion. Any motions not so noticed shall be given by the clerk to the assigned judge for ruling.

(Rule 26 added effective 2/10/95)

PRE-TRIAL MATTERS

RULE 32: DISCOVERY

32.1 USE OF DISCOVERY AND CERTIFICATION TO CIRCUIT
DIVISION (No local rule)

32.2 INTERROGATORIES

Any party propounding interrogatories in a civil action shall set forth each question in clear and concise language, leaving an appropriate place below each question for an answer or objection to be inserted. The original and a sufficient number of copies for each party to the action shall be served upon counsel for the interrogated party, or the party if not represented. None of these papers are to be filed with the Court at this time. The interrogating party shall prepare a "Certificate of Service" as set out in Appendix B-1, attach a copy to the interrogatories, and file the original "Certificate of Service" with the Court at the same time the interrogatories are mailed. The "Certificate of Service" shall include the following information:

1. The party served.
2. The date and manner of service.
3. The designation of the pleading, as first or second interrogatories, etc.
4. The signature of the attorney or party serving the interrogatories.

ANSWERS TO INTERROGATORIES:

The answers to interrogatories shall be typewritten in the spaces provided on the interrogatories. In the event an answer is too lengthy to place in the space provided, it shall be attached as an appendix and clearly identified. The interrogated party shall prepare an affidavit to be signed by the appropriate party and attach it as the last page of the interrogatories along with a "Certificate of Service" as set out in Appendix B-2, serving a copy upon each party.

DOMESTIC RELATIONS CASES:

(See Rule 68.4.6 for Interrogatories in Domestic Relations Cases.)

32.3 DEPOSITIONS

Except as otherwise provided by the Court, all depositions shall be retained by the Clerk in all cases at least until a final decision is rendered by the Court. If an appeal is not taken from said decision, each deposition shall be removed from the custody of the Clerk by the party or parties who offered said deposition at trial within forty-five (45) days after the date of the Court's final decision. If an appeal is taken from said decision, each deposition shall be removed from the custody of the Clerk by the party or parties who offered said deposition at trial within forty-five (45) days after the date of the filing recording of the mandate of the appellate court finally disposing of the cause, and any such deposition not so removed may be disposed of by the Clerk.

32.4 MOTION FOR SANCTIONS (See Rule 68.8.i)

32.5 CRIMINAL DISCOVERY

Motions to Suppress shall state with specificity what evidence is sought to be suppressed and the basis for suppressing said evidence with appropriate authority attached to the Motion.

32.6 MOTIONS RELATING TO ALL DISCOVERY

With respect to all motions relating to discovery proceedings, the Court shall not, except for good cause, hear or consider any such motion unless counsel for the movant shall first advise the court in writing that said counsel has conferred with the opposing counsel in good faith or has made reasonable efforts to do so, but that after sincere efforts to resolve differences have been made, counsel are unable to reach an accord. This written statement shall recite, in addition to the foregoing, the date, time and manner of such conference, and the names of the individuals participating therein, or shall state with specificity the efforts made to confer with opposing counsel with respect to any such motion.

RULE 33: PRE-TRIAL MOTIONS

33.1 HEARING DATES

All pre-trial motions made by either party shall be filed, noticed and heard no later than seven (7) days prior to the date set for trial unless otherwise set by the Court.

Except for good cause shown, and in unusual circumstances, no motion shall be filed later than seven (7) days before the trial date. Any motion filed later than seven (7) days before the trial date shall be subject to automatic denial. Counsel shall make all reasonable attempts to obtain from opposing counsel his/her available dates to take up, hear, and have the court rule upon Evidential Motions, Pre-Trial Motions, Objections, Trial Settings, Motions in Limine, etc. and then, based upon the availability of the Court, the same shall be set for argument and presentment of evidence, if necessary, before the Court.
